

137-055-3040Temporary Order for Support

- (1) When a party to an order to establish paternity objects to the entry of such order and provided the parentage test results in a cumulative paternity index of 99 percent or greater, the administrator may request the court to issue a temporary support order.
- (2) A party other than the state may request an order establishing temporary support.
- (3) If, in response to the initial parentage test results, a party requests additional parentage tests, such request shall be considered an objection to the entry of the order establishing paternity, and the administrator shall order the additional parentage tests.
- (4) When the administrator requests the court to issue a temporary support order, the administrator shall certify the case to court for:
 - (a) The establishment of prospective support;
 - (b) A parentage determination;
 - (c) A final order for parentage, support, and past support.
- (5) The temporary order entered by the court shall have the same force and effect as any other order entered by the administrator, court, or other tribunal.
- (6) If the court makes a determination of non-parentage, the obligor may request that the court order the return of any monies collected as a result of the temporary order.
