Multiple Child Support Judgments - Multiple Obligees

(1) For the purposes of this rule, the provisions of OAR 137-055-3660 will apply to cases with multiple child support judgments, with the following exceptions:

(a) When the administrator finds that two or more child support judgments exist involving the same obligor, same child(ren) and multiple obligees for the same time period, the administrator may initiate a governing child support order, and reconcile arrears.

(b) When the administrator finds that two or more child support judgments exist involving the same obligor, and multiple obligees for the same time period but do not include all of the children, the administrator may initiate a governing child support order, and reconcile arrears to the extent possible.

(2) The obligee having physical custody of the child(ren) during the month in which arrears accrued will be allocated that month's arrears.

(3) The allocation in section (2) may be done on a pro rata basis, using the monthly support amount for each child, if there are multiple obligees for different children.
